Donation of Merchant Lynx Services to Kimberly Kim Foundation, Inc. May Accelerate Research For the Cure for ALS

October 26, 2010

(Alpharetta, Georgia.) – The Kimberly Kim Foundation, Inc. announced on October 18, 2010 that it has received a financial donation from Merchant Lynx Services of Cumming, GA to help in the treatment and research of a cure for Amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS).

“The Kimberly Kim Foundation greatly appreciates the generous donation Merchant Lynx Services has bestowed upon us and is thankful for the overwhelming support they continue to show,” said Jin H. Kim, the Chairman of the Board for the Kimberly Kim Foundation. “The generous donation of this financial gift is a sterling example for companies and organizations to follow seeking to contribute to the treatment and ultimately finding a cure for ALS,” said Kim.
